

Welcome Workshops Friday, November 9, 2016 - 8:30 a.m. to Noon

Registration and $25 fee is required and you can attend any workshop. Open and relevant to all attendees!

Advocacy and Service – Family Medicine at the Intersection of Care for the Homeless, David Deci, MD, University of Wisconsin Dept. of Family and Community Medicine and board member of Street Medicine Institute

Community Health Needs Assessment, Robin Lankton, MPH, CHES, Community Health Improvement at UW Health; Karina Atwell, MD; Jillian Landeck, MD; Shelly Shaw, MPH; Dianne Maglaque. Attendees are asked to bring a laptop with them to this workshop.

Developing Your Future in Academic Family Medicine, Johnny Tenegra, MD, SIU Decatur Family Medicine Residency

Easy Baked Advocacy: An Interactive Cookbook of Advocacy Education Recipes for Beginners, Elizabeth Menzel, MD, Medical College of Wisconsin Fox Valley Family Medicine Residency Attendees are asked to bring a laptop with them to this workshop.

Transgender Care, Led by Ronni Hayon, MD, University of Wisconsin.

"3-in-1" session

1. Inclusive Mentorship 101: Getting the most out of mentorship for both the mentor and mentee, Jennifer Edgoose, MD, Dir. Office of Comm. Health, University of Wisconsin Dept. of Family and Community Medicine and Thomas Hahn, MD

2. Maternity Care Collaborative, Tabatha Wells, MD (Southern Illinois University Springfield Family Medicine Residency) and Kristina Dakis, MD (Fellow, Operative Obstetrics, University of Illinois College of Medicine at Peoria)

3. Women In Leadership workshop: The Personal is Professional, Emma Daisy, MD, Heartland Health Center, and Janice Benson, MD; co-chairs of Illinois AFP Women in Leadership Member Interest Group